1. I am uncomfortable exhibiting my talents to others, even if I think my talents will impress them.
2. It would make me anxious to receive a compliment from someone that I am attracted to.
3. I try to choose clothes that will give people little impression of what I am like.
4. I feel uneasy when I receive praise from authority figures.
5. If I have something to say that I think a group will find interesting, I typically say it.
6. I would rather receive a compliment from someone when that person and I were alone than when in the presence of others.
7. If I was doing something well in front of others, I would wonder whether I was doing "too well."
8. I generally feel uncomfortable when people give me compliments.
9. I don't like to be noticed when I am in public places, even if I feel as though I am being admired.
10. I often feel under-appreciated, and wish people would comment more on my positive qualities.

Read each of the following statements carefully and fill in a numbered bubble on the answer sheet to indicate the degree to which you feel the statement is characteristic of you, using the following scale. For each statement, respond as though it involves people that you do not know very well. Rate each situation from 0 to 9. Please fill in only one bubble for each statement.

Note: Items 5 and 10 are not included in the FPES score, which is the sum of the remaining eight items.
